LETTER FROM THE BOARD

At the Vital Life Foundation, 2013 was a banner year for heroes. Epic heroes, like the 20 World War II veterans who saw their Memorial for the first time. And everyday heroes, like the Vital Volunteers who put heart and soul into their jobs, work tirelessly to provide for their families and yet still find ways to give back.

Whether you’re a therapist buying holiday gifts for a cancer-stricken child, a med aide donating to typhoon disaster relief through Spirit Club or a local business owner supporting a cause you care about, you’re all heroes—and you are the reason Vital Life is able to keep making magic in our communities.

On behalf of our charitable partners and beneficiaries we say thank you to all our heroes.
Giving back to the community has always been a significant part of the Marquis Companies and Consonus Healthcare philosophy. Bringing the causes we support to the forefront is important to us, and that’s why we’ve formed the Vital Life Foundation. The foundation is the vehicle for our commitment to supporting youth, wellness, education, families, women, and seniors.

THE VITAL LIFE FOUNDATION
vitallifefoundation.org
The 2013 expenses are reflective of 2012 donations. All donations commensurate with the previous year’s fundraising. 2013 revenue will drive 2014 donations.
We are a foundation that gives to the givers—lending a hand to those who are always there to lend a hand. Our work is making sure the teachers have the tools to teach, that grandparents can feel grand and that a soldier’s honor and sacrifice gets a full salute.

Charitable Partners

$225,000 was distributed among four charitable partners.

- $70,000 Alzheimer’s Association
- $30,000 Friends of the Children
- $65,000 Meals on Wheels
- $60,000 Ronald McDonald House Charities

Charitable Beneficiaries

$60,000 was distributed among seven charitable beneficiaries.

- $5,000 American Cancer Society
- $20,000 American Heart Association
- $5,000 Children’s Cancer Association
- $10,000 JFR Foundation
- $5,000 Medical Teams International
- $10,000 Susan G. Komen
- $5,000 United Cerebral Palsy

The give that grows
Bridgetown Bash Raises the Roof and Nearly $500,000

For the 600 people who attended the 2013 Bridgetown Bash, it may have been the food carts, the tattoo artist, the cheerleaders or the driving energy of the event. Or maybe it was something Charles “Ted” Altman, a World War II veteran, said when he took the stage to movingly ask for their support.

Whatever the reason, nearly $500,000 was raised for the annual Vital Life Foundation fundraiser—representing more than half its yearly income. This incredible outpouring of support makes it possible to continue aiding charitable organizations, involving employees and residents, sponsoring programs and raising awareness of Vital Life’s important mission.

Highlighting the most interesting aspects of life in Portland, the Bash included local cuisine, artisans demonstrating their crafts and rousing live musical performances. But the true stars of the evening were all those who contributed—ensuring a brighter 2014 for Vital Life partners and those they serve.

World War II Vets Make Journey of Heroes

From Arlington to the Vietnam Memorial, they experienced an outpouring of appreciation from total strangers, young and old. “They were treated like rock stars,” recalls participant Charles Bloom.

For Milt, the World War II Memorial was a monument to the many friends he lost in the conflict. For Goldie, seeing the Enola Gay reminded her that, “War is hell. I don’t care who fights it.”

Expenses were mostly covered through contributions made by Spirit Club members and matched by Marquis Companies and Consonus Healthcare. Two groups will be sponsored each year through the VLF’s “Journey of Heroes” program.

It was a life-changing, long-overdue experience for Autumn, a volunteer companion. “They are an amazing generation,” she says, “and we’re losing them fast.”
Spirit Club Helps Bring Hope to the Philippines

As Typhoon Yolanda approached the Philippines in November of 2013, Jo Ann Perez was worried about the safety of her loved ones. A contract physical therapist at Consonus Healthcare, she was born there, and many members of her family lived directly in harm’s way.

At Medical Teams International (MTI), responders huddled around televisions as the storm grew to one of the strongest ever recorded. It came ashore with deadly force, killing more than 6,000 and leaving widespread devastation.

While MTI mobilized to provide direct care, the Vital Life Foundation also swung into action. Through matching Spirit Club donations from 736 employees of Marquis Companies and Consonus, $27,000 was donated—funding two shipping containers filled with life-saving supplies.

Days later, Jo Ann received word that her brother and sister had survived, but also the sad news that other family members had perished. “I’m so grateful for all who provided help to my countrymen,” she says. “It’s heartwarming to work at a company that encourages that.”

Children and Seniors Experience Kindness—and Cupcakes

The first time John* visited Marquis Mt. Tabor, the seventh-grader didn’t know what to expect. “Sometimes in the movies old people are mean and say, ‘Get off my lawn!’” he says. “But these were nice.”

John has been visiting the post acute rehab facility for four years, as part of a partnership between the Vital Life Foundation, Marquis Companies and Friends of the Children, a mentoring program. “It brings out the best in our youth and the residents,” says Andrew Baldwin, a Friends team leader.

On past visits, the group of children and seniors have made cupcakes together, picked garden vegetables or played board games. “The residents light up when the kids come in,” says Baldwin, “and it empowers the children to be making a difference.”

“They’ve taught me kindness,” says John, but he’s not willing to say which resident he likes best. “They’re all my favorite. I can’t really choose.”

Life Change Yields an Exponential Impact

It took a snowboarding trip with his buddies for Consonus Rehab employee Matt Feldmar to realize he was badly out of shape and needed to change his life. Today, he’s an Ironman athlete, and motivating coworkers to action through the Vital Life Foundation.

Matt’s quest for fitness led him to support the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society’s “Team in Training” program. Since 2010, he’s lost 100 pounds and is currently prepping for his fifth Ironman—a notoriously grueling swim, bike ride and marathon.

Along the way, he’s recruited 26 others to donate to the Society through the Vital Volunteers program. With matching funds, he’s inspired a total contribution of almost $10,000 to the Vital Life charitable beneficiary.

“Matt has not only taken control of his personal health, but has had an impact far beyond,” says Guy Cowart, Vice President of Operations at Consonus. “It’s been awesome to see.”

Delivering Joy to Families Struggling With Cancer

Pink, zebra-print pajamas with matching slippers. That’s what caught Patrice Staas’ eye as she shopped for the little girl with cancer. “I could just see her opening them on Christmas morning and shouting, “I got what I wanted!” she says. “It was really exciting.”

Along with dozens of coworkers, the Marquis Companies employee volunteered to contribute to “Hope for the Holidays,” sponsored by the Children’s Cancer Association (CCA). The program brightens the lives of families who are struggling to care for a child with a serious illness.

The Vital Life Foundation adopted three CCA families in 2013, and reached out for help to all Marquis and Consonus Healthcare staff. Employees personally did the gift shopping, and formed an assembly line to get them wrapped.

“It was magic to have Vital Life involved,” says Regina Ellis, CCA founder and CEO. “Thank you for helping us deliver joy.”
Laughing Matters Breaks Through Alzheimer’s Gloom

Stand-up comedians first took the stage for Laughter is the Best Medicine in 2010, and the annual Vital Life Foundation fundraiser has raised $47,000 for the Alzheimer’s Association in the past two years alone. Now through “Laughing Matters”, comedy is a form of therapy in some Marquis Companies facilities.

The innovative model uses comedy improvisation techniques to engage people suffering with dementia. They’re encouraged to “be in the moment,” often with amazing results.

One resident had difficulty forming single words, but during an improv game was encouraged to make a sheep sound. That opened the floodgates, and soon an entire story tumbled out—how her father had tended sheep, and how those were her happiest memories. She was suddenly speaking in sentences—a mind briefly unlocked.

In 2013, a $7,100 grant from the Oregon Community Foundation helped replicate the program in other facilities, and it’s being considered for national endorsement by the Alzheimer’s Association.
