THANK YOU FOR 10 YEARS
TWO THOUSAND & SEVENTEEN

letter from the board

big numbers.

They get most of the attention at remarkable milestones like this, and rightfully so.

It's Vital Life's 10-year anniversary celebration, after all—an irresistible opportunity to pop some champagne and share some extraordinary and inspiring statistics:

- Almost $4 million contributed to charitable organizations and programs since our founding in 2008.
- Nearly 2,000 donors, sponsors, partners and friends have supported us over the past decade.
- More than $1 million contributed to Vital Life by Marquis and Consonus employees—straight from their paychecks through Spirit Club.
- Over 17,000 Backpacks delivered, along with hundreds of wishes granted and veterans honored.

But all of these outstanding achievements are built on a number that's even more important—one.

Like the one occupational therapist who battled back from a life-threatening injury to climb the 108-floor Stratosphere—inspiring her patients with every step. Or the one 92-year-old veteran who conquered her fears in an open-cockpit biplane.

Like the one Cupid Crew volunteer who ranked the experience among the most meaningful of his life. Or the one post-acute care resident who got to see Mt. Rushmore.

These are the “ones” of 2017—just four of countless others living and working in senior care. They represent the individual actions and moments of impact that give our mission its collective shape and power.

After ten years, big numbers tell a crucial story.

But it's still the little “ones” we celebrate, because that's how Vital Life was built and thrives today—one true believer at a time.

senior stars make movie magic

Wearing a wig and brandishing a plastic hatchet, 81-year-old Chuck delivered one of movie history's most memorable lines. "Heeeeeeeeeere's Johnny!" he shouted, doing his best Jack Nicholson.

"Cut! Absolutely perfect!" enthused the animated director, Hollywood's Matthew Hoffman, creator of the hit YouTube show, "Tuesdays with Matthew." Using custom costumes, green screen and a heavy dose of his signature enthusiasm, he transforms seniors into movie stars and recreates famous moments from famous films.

At Vital Life's urging, Matthew brought his show to Oregon, with Marquis residents as the leads in Free Willy, Animal House and The Shining. When editing was done, he returned to give his stars a red-carpet premiere—complete with champagne flutes filled with Ensure.

For Matthew and all who participate, there's no greater reward than watching seniors see their faces on the big screen for the first time. And with all YouTube proceeds benefitting Meals on Wheels, it's a true blockbuster success.

inspiring hope with every step

A trampoline accident when she was only 13 left Ally Few paralyzed from the neck down, and doctors said she'd never walk again.

So maybe that explains the tears in her eyes as she conquered all 1,455 steps of the iconic Stratosphere Tower in Las Vegas, Nev.

Now an occupational therapist at Marquis Centennial Hills, the story of Ally's near-miraculous recovery is an inspiration to the residents she serves. "I'm doing Scale the Strat to show them that anything's possible," she said.

Ally's Vital Life-sponsored team of 89 Marquis and Cononus colleagues was the largest in the nation to participate in an American Lung Association stair-climb event. Many wore photos of beloved residents struggling with lung disease, and three were even there to cheer the climbers on.

"It was hard, but I did it," said Ally, still gasping for air on the 108th floor. "It's for my patients."

all you need is love

All Tyler Crohn expected when he joined the Cupid Crew was to help bring a little Valentine's Day love to seniors.

But when the final flower was delivered, he struggled to describe the joy he'd received in kind.

Tyler was one of nearly 250 Marquis and Cononus employees who volunteered for the program, a Vital Life and Wish of a Lifetime partnership. At least 1,000 roses were given at seven Marquis campuses and Cononus customer facilities—and more than 20,000 nationwide.

"It's a reminder that there's more to what we do than just providing therapy or medications," said Laurie Thomas, Cononus' Vice-President of Strategic Development. "It's about the heart."

"This has been one of the most meaningful things I've ever done," Tyler reflected, remembering the senior whose eyes welled up with tears when he handed him a rose. "We made every resident's day splendid."

destination: mt. rushmore

"North by Northwest" had always been one of Allen's favorite movies, and every time he watched it a dream reawakened—to drive to South Dakota in a '49 Chevy convertible, visit Mt. Rushmore, and order a gimlet cocktail just like Cary Grant did.

The 85-year-old resident of Marquis Hope Village talked about it every day, and said it was the one thing he wanted to do before he died. Knowing he'd been diagnosed with a terminal illness, his care team worked tirelessly to make it happen.

With the help of Wish of a Lifetime, Vital Life's partner in the Elevated Wish program, his dream finally came true—all except for the '49 Chevy.

When asked his secret for a successful life, Allen once responded, "Never give up, never give up." Profound in its simplicity, that philosophy not only carried him through life—it got him to Mt. Rushmore.

a celebration of sacrifice

“Off we go, into the wild, blue yonder,” sang 92-year-old Fran, poised for take-off in the open-cockpit of a Stearman bi-plane. She was admittedly nervous, but it didn’t show.

Thanks to Ageless Aviation Dreams, and the mission it shares with Vital Life to honor America’s senior veterans, 20 flew that day, many of whom served in World War II.

The flights were just one highlight of the Foundation’s annual “Spirit of ‘45” celebration, commemorating the sacrifice of the Greatest Generation.

More than 300 attended the special event, which also featured the Boy Scouts, Geezer Gallery and Providence Hospice.

“It’s up to us to carry on that Spirit of ‘45, and remember that we are a unified nation,” said Oregon senator Jeff Merkley in a stirring keynote address.

But maybe the day’s most inspiring words came from Fran. “You’re never too old to do something you really want.” she said after her thrilling flight. “You only go around once.”

seeing memories through the eyes of art

With a huge smile on her face, hands masterfully working with scissors and paint, Doris stayed on task, barely looking up. The widow of a World War II veteran, she was telling her husband’s war story in a way she’d never imagined—as a mixed-media work of visual art.

Doris was one of seven, ages 91 to 100, who participated at Marquis Tualatin in “Capturing Time: Journaling Your Journey,” a Geezer Gallery program made possible through a Vital Life grant.

A local writer, himself a veteran, interviewed each participant and documented their memories. The final collage of photographs, text and color evoked themes of perseverance, unity and the irrepressible human spirit.

At the program’s completion, each work appeared in a Community Art Showcase, before taking its rightful place as a treasured family heirloom.

But for Doris, the amazing experience still wasn’t complete—she and another group member were celebrated for their artistic efforts with a live interview on KGW’s Portland Today.

2017 donors

spirit club members

spirit club

Marquis and Consonus employees who choose to make donations to the Vital Life Foundation through payroll deductions. Their donations are equally matched by Marquis and Consonus, thus doubling the impact to charitable organizations.

vital volunteer

Marquis and Consonus employees who have a personal involvement in charitable giving through volunteer hours or monetary donations. The Vital Life Foundation is able to match their charitable giving with a monetary donation.

individual donor

Individual donors are those who personally donate to the Vital Life Foundation. This may include employees of Marquis and Consonus who make donations beyond that of the Spirit Club.

corporate donor

Corporations who contribute to the Vital Life Foundation via monetary and/or in-kind donations.
